

Hubert U. King, CPA Vice President

Mr. King has more than 30 years of health care experience. He has a thorough operational and financial understanding of hospitals from the inside, as well as documented success in building consulting businesses. Mr. King can bring clarity to convoluted issues and identify effective solutions for hospital CEOs, and assist in executing strategies that improve performance. The scope of his experience includes hospital operations in Florida, Indiana and Texas and consulting as the National Health Care Advisor for Ernst & Young's national health care practice. Mr. King has led financial turnarounds, to include a five hospital system hospital in Florida.

His senior consulting and executive leadership experience with multi-hospital systems assures the successful achievement of complex objectives. His expertise spans a broad range that extends beyond: financial performance and processes for hospital systems, health plans, managed care, integrating subsidiaries, and organizing physician joint ventures.
